☐ Regular ($35/yr) ☐ Family ($40/yr) ☐ Associate ($20/yr) ☐ Junior ($15/yr)

Regular member: Any person interested in the Cardigan Welsh Corgi who is sixteen (16) years of age or over. Regular members enjoy all of the privileges of the Club, including voting and nomination privileges.

Junior members are under sixteen (16) years of age. Junior members receive the Club newsletter and may work on committees; they may not vote, hold office, nominate candidates to office, or chair a committee. Upon reaching sixteen (16) years of age they may convert to regular membership.

Associate members shall be for those persons who do not wish to be a regular voting member. Associate members shall have no voting privileges.

A family membership is available for two or more named adults, or adult(s) and children under sixteen (16), residing in the same household. (Common law or same sex households are included within this definition.) Family membership will be provided with one copy of the Club newsletter. Any adult household member is eligible to stand for office, subject to other constitutional limitations, but only one vote per family membership will be permitted.

Puppy memberships are intended to encourage responsible Cardigan ownership and involvement in the Club among those people who are new to the breed. Club members who breed puppies are encouraged to purchase puppy memberships for non-members who acquire puppies (or older dogs) from them. A puppy membership shall last one year only and shall not have any voting privileges.
